

My Daily Mile

Writing & Drawing Activities

Consider using the following writing prompts and blank templates provided in this document to inspire your students to create artwork and written pieces based on The Daily Mile. Or use the template on the last page to create your own prompt. Your students will have the opportunity to express their creativity while also forming experiencing the benefits of The Daily Mile.

Once the artwork is complete, please submit it to The Daily Mile team at team@thedailymile.us. We look forward to seeing the amazing artwork and written pieces that your students will create!

1. Finish the sentence: I love The Daily Mile because ...
2. Describe your Daily Mile route. What do you see and hear along the way?
3. Write a letter to the future students who will do The Daily Mile with your teacher next year. What would you like them to know?
4. Write a poem about the feeling you get when you finish The Daily Mile.
